

JUDGE NOT
Book Club Discussion Questions

1. There are a number of characters introduced who have their own backstories: the troublesome man from Sam's past, a mysterious woman some of the readers may remember from an earlier novel, a possible new friend for Sam, even a new companion in the form of a loyal mixed breed named Jax. Which of these characters fascinated you the most and why?
2. What surprised you most about the book?
3. How did you feel about the development of Sam's relationship with Terry?
4. What knowledge did you gain about either the locale or about the procedural aspects of the investigation?
5. What theme or themes did you identify in the book?
6. Did you read any of the books in the series that came before this one? If yes, do you think that added to your enjoyment of the book? If not, did that get in the way of your enjoying the book?
7. What is your favorite passage in the book?
8. If the book were turned into a movie or a streaming series, who would you cast as the main characters?
9. What will or should happen to Sam going forward?
10. Do you want this series to continue?